- 34.2 The Customer must:

- (1) give to the Company any consent or authority; and that the Company determines is reasonably necessary for the Company to comply with the Company's obligations under a Legal Requirement or to give effect to a provision of the Documents.

35. Severability

- 35.1 If anything in the Documents is unenforceable, illegal or void or contravenes the law then it is severed and the rest of the Documents remains in force.
- 35.2 The rights and obligations of each party are not affected by any law that, but for this clause 35.2, would affect those rights and obligations.

36. No reliance

- 36.1 Each party has entered into the Documents without relying on any representation (whether or not negligently) by any other party or any person purporting to represent that party except for representations expressly set out in the Documents.

37. Variation

- 37.1 This Contract may be varied, amended, supplemented or replaced by agreement in writing between the Company and the Customer.
- 37.2 In addition to its rights under clause 37.1, the Company may, from time to time, without the Customer's prior consent, vary, amend, supplement or replace this Contract or any of the Rules by giving notice to the Customer. The parties agree to be bound by the variation, amendment, supplementation or replacement (whether material, adverse or otherwise).

38. Rights, powers and remedies

- 38.1 The rights, powers and remedies of each party are additional to other rights, powers and remedies independently given by law.

- (1) monetary damages alone may not be a sufficient remedy for breach of the Documents; and
  - (2) in addition to any other remedy that may be available at law or in equity, each party is entitled to interim, interlocutory or permanent injunctions or any combination of them to prevent a breach and to compel specific performance of the Documents.
- 38.4 The failure of a party to exercise or enforce, or a delay by a party in exercising or enforcing, a right, power or remedy does not operate as a waiver of the exercise or enforcement by that party of that or any other right, power or remedy.
- 38.5 The exercise or enforcement by a party of a right, power or remedy does not preclude the further exercise or enforcement by that party of that right, power or remedy or the exercise or enforcement by that party of any other right, power or remedy.
- 38.6 A party may exercise or enforce a right, power or remedy (including giving or withholding his, her or its approval or consent, making elections or determinations) entirely at his, her or its absolute discretion (including by imposing conditions).
- 38.7 A provision of this Contract may only be waived if the waiver is signed by the person who has the benefit of the provision and who is therefore to be bound by the waiver. The Company will be bound by a waiver only if it is signed by an authorised officer of the Company.
- 38.8 No custom or practice which evolves between the parties will constitute a waiver or lessen the Company's right to insist upon the Customer's strict performance or observance of any provision of the Documents, or to exercise any of the Company's other rights.
- 38.9 Regardless of the Company's knowledge at the time, a demand by the Company for Charges or the subsequent acceptance of Charges will not constitute a waiver of any earlier default by the Customer.
- 38.10 In exercising or enforcing, or deciding not to exercise or enforce, a right, power or remedy, a party is not required to take into account any adverse effect on another party.
- 38.11 Each party agrees to comply with the conditions of any approval, consent or waiver given by another party.
- 38.12 Waiver of a right, power or remedy is effective only in respect of the specific instance to which it relates and for the specific purpose for which it is given.
- 38.13 The certificate of any authorised officer of the Company as to:
- (1) the amount by which Charges are in arrears;
  - (2) the amount of Costs for the purposes of the Documents, including clauses 12.11, 14.8, 20.6(3) or 26.7; or

39. Continuing obligations

They also survive the execution and delivery of any conveyance, assignment, transfer or other document entered into for the purpose of implementing any transaction contemplated by the Documents.
- 39.2 Each indemnity in the Documents survives the expiry or termination of this Contract. A party may enforce a right of indemnity at any time, including before he, she or it has suffered Loss.
- 39.3 Despite clause 4.2, clauses 13, 14 15 and 44 continue to apply even if the Customer does not hold, or no longer holds, any Delivery Entitlements or does not wish, or no longer wishes, to have Water Allocation delivered to his, her or its Landholding.
- 39.4 Clauses 13, 14 15 and 44 survive the expiry or termination of this Contract.

  - (2) an email is not deemed given and received:
    - (a) if the sender's computer reports that the message has not been delivered; and

- 41.6 If a Notice is served by a method which is provided by law but is not provided by clause 41.2, and the service takes place after 5pm on a Business Day, or on a day which is not a Business Day, it must be treated as taking place on the next Business Day.
- 41.7 A Notice sent or delivered in a manner provided by clause 41.2 must be treated as validly given to and received by the party to which it is addressed even if:
  - (1) the addressee has been liquidated or deregistered or is absent from the place at which the Notice is delivered or to which it is sent;
  - (2) the Notice is returned unclaimed; or
  - (3) in the case of a Notice sent by email, the email message is not delivered or opened (unless the sender's computer reports that it has not been delivered).

- 43.1 If the Customer dies, and the Customer is not a joint holder, the Company is not obliged to recognise anyone except the personal representative of the deceased Customer as being entitled to the deceased Customer's interest in their Water Entitlements and Delivery Entitlements.
- 43.2 If the person entitled to the Customer's Water Entitlements or Delivery Entitlements as the personal representative of a deceased Customer or because of the bankruptcy or mental incapacity of the Customer (Successor) gives the Company the information it reasonably requires to establish the Successor's entitlement to be registered as holder of the Customer's Water Entitlements or Delivery Entitlements:
