Amendments to this Schedule of Charges

JIL reserves the right to amend this Schedule of Charges (in accordance with the Water Charge Rules 2010 (Cth)) if required.

Invoicing:

JIL invoices its charges quarterly, meaning there are four invoices for the year (1 July 2021 to 30 June 2022). The invoices are levied as follows:

- the first on 30 September 2021;*
- the second on 31 December 2021;*
- the third on 31 March 2022; and*
- the fourth on 30 June 2022.*

The following fixed charges are divided evenly across the four invoices for the year:

- Delivery Entitlement Charge;*
- Entity Charge;*
- Outlet Charges;*
- all fixed Pass-through Government Water Charges.*

All variable charges, including the Usage Charge, the Variable Usage Charge and the Casual Usage Charge are levied as a quarterly charge after they are incurred.

All Connection and Disconnection Fees and the Temporary Transfer Exit Charge are levied at the end of the month in which they are incurred.

All charges listed in an invoice are payable 30 days after the due date specified on the invoice.

Interest will be applied to any charges that remain outstanding after the due date. The interest rate, in accordance with section 356 of the Water Management Act 2000 (NSW), is:

•in respect of the period from 1 January to 30 June in any year - the rate that is 6% above the cash rate last published by the Reserve Bank of Australia before that period commenced; and

•in respect of the period from 1 July to 31 December in any year - the rate that is 6% above the cash rate last published by the Reserve Bank of Australia before that period commenced.

How the charges set out in this Schedule of Charges are determined.

All of JIL's charges are approved by the JIL Board of Directors every year prior to their implementation. If a customer wishes to consult JIL at any time regarding this process or provide feedback on or participate in this consultation process, please contact the JIL office on (02) 6857 4201 or admin@jemalong.net.au.

Pass-through Government Water Charges are calculated to recover charges incurred by JIL from the relevant NSW Government entities, which are:

•WaterNSW. The WaterNSW conveyance licence charge incurred by JIL are specified by the NSW Minister for Water. The remaining WaterNSW charges incurred by JIL are set by IPART after a public consultation process;

•WAMC. These charges incurred by JIL are set by IPART after a public consultation process; and •the MDBA. These charges incurred by JIL are set by IPART after a public consultation process.
